We asked, and you answered. It’s time once again for you, the readers, to tell us what you like best about the retailers La Jolla has to offer. The votes have been counted and the results are in: the La Jolla Today Readers Choice Awards, your guide to the best of the best in La Jolla and University City, is here.

Many of the winners have been around long enough to have built a solid and loyal fan base. Others are just getting off the ground and are hard at work proving they’ve got what it takes to hold their own among La Jolla’s elite — and it must be working, or they wouldn’t be on this list.

In these pages you’ll find a rundown of the brightest stars in retail services, from book stores and markets to banks, accountants, hotels, pet sitters, florists and everything in between.

If you’re looking for a gift store for that one-of-a-kind gift, consider checking out where our readers have found the perfect item. If you’re deep in some home improvement and in need of an electrician, see who was voted the best in La Jolla. If your computer suddenly crashed and left you in a lurch, find out who in the Village is known for speedy and reliable computer repair.

We’d like to thank the readers for their careful vetting of the best La Jolla has to offer, and mostly we want to thank the winners of this year’s Readers Choice Awards for continuing to provide the best in service and value, and for making our jewel a shining example of what being a community business owner is all about.

The next time you’re out and about in La Jolla and you see a local store or service provider proudly displaying their Readers Choice Award, take a moment to tell the owner or manager that you appreciate what they do!

La Jolla: The Jewel and its Treasures

The people have spoken, the votes have been tabulated and the results of our fifth annual La Jolla Today Readers Choice Awards are in! Many are repeat winners, meaning friendly service and good value are timeless, while others are new businesses that have sparked from the get-go. Our categories cover all the things that residents can find right in La Jolla, from yoga and beauty salons to banks, grocery stores, dry cleaners and everything in between.

Ballots were printed in La Jolla Today for several weeks and also posted on our website, www.sdnews.com. Although our poll is not scientific, we think it gives a pretty good idea of the people and places that give La Jolla its sterling reputation. We hope these awards will delight those who aspire to excellence every day and inspire new businesses to go the extra mile — with a smile — in these tough economic times. La Jolla Today would like to thank all the readers who took the time to single out the businesses and merchants who make the Jewel a priceless treasure. And to the winners — we salute you!

Bookstore
Warwick’s
When W.T. Warwick founded his paper-goods shop in Minnesota in 1896, he sold books, writing paper and writing instruments. Upon relocating to California in the mid-1930s, Warwick re-established his store in downtown La Jolla. In 2001, the fourth generation stepped up to the plate. Nancy and Cathy Warwick, W.T. Warwick’s great-granddaughters, have continued to underscore the family’s enduring commitment to books — big, fat ones that stack to the rafters and beyond. It’s also the home of the La Jolla Cultural Society and has featured guest talks with luminaries such as Edward Albee, Norman Mailer and Alan Ginsberg.

La Jolla Goodwill

Yes, I know what you are thinking. A Goodwill in La Jolla? The 1,600-square-foot store uses proceeds from sales of donated items to help people with disabilities and other barriers to employment find jobs by developing their skills and work habits through training and on-the-job experience. But the very best thing about the new La Jolla Goodwill is the same thing that sends people flocking to estate and garage sales in the better parts of town: classy goods. You’ll find top brands like Prada and Gucci! So, if you want to go thrifting for the good stuff, the La Jolla Goodwill is the place to start!

Meanley and Sons Hardware
Meanley and Sons has been a staple of the La Jolla community for more than 60 years, with roots tracing back to 1948, when Nackey Scripps Meanley, husband Tom and son William established the store. With gourmet cookware, paint, portrait appliances, giftware, light bulbs, tools, electrical and plumbing fittings, cleaning and gardening supplies, and all the widgets, fasteners, gongs, and what’s-its-ma-callums you can imagine. Meanley and Sons joined the Ace Hardware co-op in 1997, which enables them to keep prices low while still offering hometown customer service.

Health Food
Whole Foods strives to provide the highest quality, least processed, most flavorful and natural foods possible, because the owners believe that food in its purest state—unadulterated by artificial additives, sweeteners, colorings and preservatives—is the best tasting and most nutritious food there is. And while they keep a global perspective about their operations, they are also active in local communities, supporting food banks, sponsoring neighborhood events and donating to local non-profit groups.

Pharmaca
Integrative Pharmacy
At a time when healthcare costs are rising and employer-provided coverage is shrinking, Pharmaca is happy to be your everyday health resource. The Pharmaca philosophy is to take a preventive approach to health from the start. That’s why their stores offer a range of products to help you maintain good health, in addition to traditional treatment options and a staff of certified health care experts at times when you need them most. The staff helps guide customers through the

Place To Buy Jeans
The Gap
In the summer of 1969, man walked on the moon, nearly 450,000 people witnessed Woodstock, and Doris and Don Fisher opened the first Gap store in San Francisco. Today, Gap Inc. is one of the world’s largest specialty retailers, with approximately 3,100 stores, and the brand’s signature line of jeans is still a favorite among denim-lovers.

Margaret’s Cleaners

The flagship location in La Jolla includes a central processing facility with a customer call office adjacent to the plant. The skill set involved has been extremely difficult to develop, and we can’t imagine how difficult it would be to duplicate. In 1995, Margaret’s began to offer services to the garment retailers of San Diego, providing garment cleaning, restoration and evaluation. This part of the business requires a full-time representative to coordinate and serve the retailer in addition to the friendly staff for their dedicated customers in and around La Jolla.

Financial Planner

Valerie Ewell

Wheeler Frost

It might seem odd that Valerie Ewell began her career as a veterinarian more than 40 years ago, and was co-owner and operator of the La Jolla Veterinary Hospital. But co-owning a business for 20 years gave her first-hand experience, which she parlayed to provide financial advisory services to small business owners and individuals. She then formally pursued her interest in financial planning and investment strategy by completing a rigorous course and national board exam to become a Certified Financial Planner.

La Jolla Wellness Center
A new way to workout is now available in La Jolla, and though it may seem hard to believe, the La Jolla Wellness Studio will tell you that its 15-minute workout from start to finish will do just as much, if not more, than the 60 minutes you’re spending sweating in the gym. The La Jolla Wellness Center provides a revolutionary approach to fitness and your health, creating a workout regimen that is quick, easy and based on more than 2 years of science and medical research. What makes the La Jolla Wellness Studio stand apart from other fitness centers, is the technological approach it employs, utilizing vibration technology and focusing on the equal importance of preparation and recovery time, its owners explained. First time visitors have their body scanned to produce a 15-point comprehensive analysis that personalizes the exact areas and measurements to focus on.

Acupuncture

Acupuncture Center of La Jolla

The Acupuncture Center of La Jolla has been serving La Jolla since 1989. Throughout the years, they have worked as a part of the community to provide complementary methods of healing that best serve their patients. They coined the phrase, “Chinese Medicine for an American Lifestyle” back in 1989 to establish their desire to bring this most ancient form of healing into the modern world. Just ask their patients.

Coast Acupuncture

Oriental medicine and acupuncture have been practiced successfully in China for the last 3,000 years and have flourished in Europe and the U.S. since the mid 1900’s. Now La Jolla residents can also tap into the benefits of Eastern medicine with acupuncture treatments at Coast Acupuncture. Founders Dr. Beata Booth Hogan and Dr. Michael Hogan, both licensed acupuncturists through the Medical Board of California, provide a full array of holistic remedies to treat a wide variety of maladies, including pain, digestion disorders, infertility, chronic illnesses, addiction and emotional issues, among others.

Alternative/ Holistic Health

La Jolla Holistic Health since 1998, La Jolla Holistic Health has helped clients create balance by teaching Proactive Choices for Total Wellness®. They specialize in Complementary and Alternative Medicine (CAM) through Reflexology, Reiki featuring the FDA approved Bio-Mat, Nutritional Advice, Alternative Healing Support and Vitamin/Herbal Supplement Consulting along with Holistic Life Strategies Coaching. Services are available by appointment only in our Sorrento Valley office or through our mobile services in the privacy of your home, office or hotel.

Wellspring Health

Wellspring Health knows that perfect health begins with a perfect partnership between you and your physician. They also understand the answer to illness does not lie within a pill. That is why they have created a unique experience in medicine that uses the knowledge of health, through diet, exercise, daily routine, and stress management. The advances available through modern medicine help them design a tailored health plan for you that takes into consideration all of your individual needs. As you change, so does their recommendations. Wellspring helps you attain all of your health goals, one step at a time.

Chiropractic

Chiropractic Arts Dr. Earl Bush

This name is more reflective than you may realize. Healing is most definitely an art form, steeped in the traditions that render the most precious art form of all – the human body – unto its peak. Chiropractic Arts uses modern techniques to preserve that eons-old work of art, which is to say it can open a whole new window onto your problem. See what Dr. Bush and his team of experts can do for you.
