Readers weigh in on OB’s choice food venues and favorite businesses and service providers

In Ocean Beach, the dining experience – outdoors on patios watching the setting sun or underneath a canopy of stars – simply can’t be beat, especially when paired with the sweet sea air and the thunder of waves crashing against the shore. And after a year of hardship and uncertainty, there are new options on the menu and more ways to enjoy the sunny San Diego weather with fresh outdoor dining spots.

In 1887, developers Billy Carlson and Albert Higgins changed the beach community’s name from Mussel Beach to Ocean Beach to make the neighborhood a little more appealing for would-be investors and build a business district based on fairness and customer service.

Ocean Beach retail merchants still observe and practice those beliefs. In 2021 especially, the Ocean Beach businesses and the Peninsula Beacon would like to express gratitude for your continued support through this unprecedented time. Ocean Beach’s merchants are proud to welcome you to this unique San Diego neighborhood, and they’re ready to return the favor by justifying the faith you’ve shown.

Accordingly, the Peninsula Beacon asked readers to pick the “Best Of” retail and services industries as well as restaurants and eateries in Ocean Beach. In this edition of the Peninsula Beacon Readers Choice Awards, readers weighed in on their favorites.
Readers' Choice Awards 2020

Congratulations to the following restaurants which were chosen by the readers of The Peninsula Beacon.

Readers were asked to cast ballots for their favorite category choices. This was no simple task! With more than 70 categories, our readers came away with overwhelming responses. We wish to thank the restaurants that do so much to make Ocean Beach such a wonderful community.

The Joint

Sushi and tapas may sound like a strange combo, but The Joint in Ocean Beach combines the two cuisines perfectly. The restaurant features a full sushi bar plus specializes in steak, seafood, tapas and southern fusion. Patrons have dubbed the Joint Roll as a must try. The burgers and sweet potato fries are favorites too. The Joint specializes in steak, seafood, tapas and southern fusion. Patrons have dubbed the Joint Roll as a must try.

BO-beau kitchen + bar

Part of the local powerhouse Cohn Restaurant Group, BO-beau takes its place as their premiere French restaurant. And this is no mere bistro, we’re talking about classic French cuisine, from starters like escargot with a garlic-herb butter sauce and steak tartare to main courses of boeuf bourguignon, chicken fricassee and a selection of moules, salads and pastas. But you won’t find any cliché Gallic restaurant snobbery here; everything at BO-beau is done in an inviting, warm and casual dining atmosphere. Entrees are a good bargain for the price here, everything at BO-beau is done in an inviting, warm and casual dining atmosphere. Entrees are a good bargain for the price here.

Kaiserhof

Kaiserhof is a family owned and operated German restaurant. A German restaurant would not be complete without wienerwurst or jagerschnitzel. It doesn’t get much better than the “smearplat” which includes: bratwurst, knockwurst and bauernwurst with sauerkraut and red potatoes and a good German beer. American style entrees include braised lobster tail, grilled halibut steak, poached salmon filet with hollandaise, flat mignon Madagascar with peppercorn brandy sauce, or a New York strip steak. OB Noodle House Bar
1502
OB Noodle House Bar 1502 specializes in pho and run by the two sons of the owners of OB Donut. The pho comes highly recommended in two sizes. Enjoy a hearty broth and “mix-ins,” including sprouts, basil, lime and jalapeño. Choose from steak, rib-eye, meatball or tripe. Also on the menu, you’ll find broken rice, fried rice, some vermicelli dishes and a Korean barbecue rib plate. They have fried dumplings, spring rolls, egg rolls plus a good beer selection, with many imports from Asia, all at great prices. You’ll also enjoy their sushi bar next door.

3rd Corner
Your first glance at this OB wine bar may prompt a certain confusion. You won’t know whether you’ve walked into a bar that dabbles in retail sales or a wine cellar with a drinking license—such is the level of attention this establishment renders for both services. Hundreds of bottles from around the world are there for the taking, surrounded by funky-colored walls and maps of the world’s most well-known wine regions. 3rd Corner serves dinner, too, and many patrons making it a habit of ordering a meal and then visiting the racks to pick the wine that goes best with their food. You won’t be paying an inflated price just because you’re at a restaurant.

Best Winery
Gianni Buonomo Vintners
One step into this award winning winery/tasting room and you’re instantly awash in the unmistakable aroma of fine wine aging in French oak barrels. It doesn’t take long after that for you to sense our genuine enthusiasm and passion for wine making. It can’t be disguised or hidden. Where does the passion come from? The passion comes from the unswerving belief that we are producing wines of exceptional quality that can’t be found anywhere else. The passion comes from being able to get up every morning to do something that we love. We couldn’t imagine doing anything else. What we produce brings smiles to faces. It stimulates conversation. It inspires. It encourages slowing things down a bit for you to relax, have some laughs, savor a great dinner and enjoy your friends and family. “To craft something people love sharing with friends… that they bring to celebrations and special dinner, and use to console themselves. That’s my great reward.”

Chapter One Tattoo
Cash and Michelle Scott opened Chapter One Tattoo in 2011 with the goal to house a community of artists who produce exceptional work while maintaining a humble and sincere work environment. A thriving 8 years later, they are honored and humbled to say that is exactly what they did. You can find artists who are not only beyond talented but are personal and professional. The end result is a place you can be sure to leave with a grin from ear to ear and a custom, flawless new skin adornment.

Elka/Pier to Point Yoga & Wellness
Sunset Cliffs Pilates can help you transform your body into the best shape of your life! Pilates articulates the joints, it dictates coordination, and it is an isometric workout using the resistance of your body weight, employing several muscle groups simultaneously through the concept of spring. Hundred of movements can be performed on all the equipment, strengthening the core of the body as well as other desired areas.
