When it comes to great food, services in Point Loma, Old Town, look no further!

As the economy begins to mend, Peninsula residents are beginning to venture out more to take advantage of the host of offerings Point Loma and Old Town San Diego businesses are eager to serve up.

You might be looking for the best deal on those pesky insurance rates or a place to vent your ire in that you’re in the market for that perfect piece of jewelry for that special person in your life. You may be looking for the right company to take care of your air-conditioning needs this hot summer or to get some relief from a chiropractor who can give you some much-needed attention to your aching back.

Perhaps you’re seeking a quiet spot for a summer metropolitan area where you can observe the passing boats in peace as the setting sun edges into the horizon. Or maybe you’re on the hunt for cool museums and new educational opportunities for the family and kids. Need some flash new glasses or some down time with a long, relaxing massage? From the serenity of Shelter Island and relaxing massage? From the serenity of Shelter Island and Spa, to the pristine beauty of Point Loma and from the right bouquet of flowers to say, “I’m thinking of you.”

But how in the world do you narrow your selections with so much to choose from? Well, that’s where the Peninsula Beacon can make things a little easier for you. Here, we present the latest edition of the 2014 Reader’s Choice Awards — the best-of-the-best in retail, restaurants and services for the Peninsula area and Old Town San Diego. The merchants in these bustling areas are dedicated to winning your business — and more importantly, to keeping it.

Ball Hai
There’s no escaping the Hawaiian theme at this long-time San Diego fixture; it’s everywhere from the menu to the décor, and it includes Hawaiian nachos, macadamia nut chicken, holo halihoa and about a million more choices. The 90th state rules here by virtue of its cuisine, and its tiny place on the map he hangs. Meanwhile, the restaurant’s accouterments are ever-changing in deference to tiki art or Polynesian carvings of human forms. And the fact that the building sits smack on the water only enhances the flow of things. Mahalo — enjoy!

Owned and operated by Mark Bihm and Humberto Villegas, New Orleans Creole Cafe opened in 2004. Its main focus is the food — recipes handed down through seven generations of Mark’s family. They proudly serve authentic Creole dishes and Abita beers. In order to keep dishes authentically-true, many of the ingredients along with the beers are imported directly from Louisiana. Jambalaya and Crawfish Etouffee are among their specialties. Creole Café has gone “back to the basics”. Everything is done by Mark and Humberto. It began with an idea . . . Point Loma Seafoods first opened its doors to the public back in 1965. In time, along with their sons Jack and John, Kelly and Marie slowly built Point Loma Seafoods’ reputation out of a small store with one small display case. Fiddlers Green Fiddler’s Green had its origins in 18th century sailing lore. Common seamen, who repaired their lines with a splicing tool called a fid, dreamed of a sailor’s heaven, where after the long voyage their every desire would be fulfilled. Today, Steve & Debi of Point Loma and their friends welcome you to their own Fiddler’s Green where the best food and drink, and perhaps a touch of merriment, are offered nightly in one of the world’s most renowned sailing ports. We hope you join us here as often as your voyages allow.

Free Event Every Saturday in July and August in Old Town

Old Town San Diego State Historic Park is celebrating travel and transportation in the era of real horsepower during “Stagecoach Days: Kicking off on July 11. Come join in the old-fashioned fun from the mid-1860s from noon to 4 pm on seven Saturdays in July and August.

Sponsored by Fiesta de Reyes and Boosters of Old Town, the free event features a different theme each Saturday such as Days of the Vaqueros, Women of the West, Soldiers and Citizens, Twin-Foot and Taste of the Past.

Attendees will enjoy afternoon filled with activities that reflect life in early San Diego and celebrate the West on the move. Through living history activities and demonstrations, stories and songs, visitors will gain an appreciation for early modes of transportation and daily life. All activities are geared toward children and adults of all ages.

This year’s Stagecoach Days will be the best in our park’s history,” stated Event Coordinator Greg Gonzalo.

“We have added many more family-friendly activities to the event this year so visitors will get a true taste of what Old Town was like in the 1860’s.”

The Stagecoach Days schedule is as follows.

August 8 - “Soldiers and Citizens”

The military has been part of San Diego since its inception. Following the Mexican American War, the Mexican Battalion and the Boundary Commission had an impact on life in San Diego.

August 15 – “Brian’s Bootfeet”

The wildly popular festival celebrating literature and the literary works of Mark Twain and other 19th-century authors. Excerpts from famous works will be presented by costumed San Diego actors, in a variety of park venues throughout the day.

August 22 - “West on the Move”

The California Gold Rush brought thousands of people to San Diego. Some stayed, many more moved through, seeking their fortunes up north. California State Parks will present demonstrations and activities that were part of the lives of these people on the move.

Old Town San Diego State Historic Park, with the support of Boosters of Old Town and Fiesta de Reyes, is proud to offer these free activities for adults and children of all ages. The park is located on San Diego Avenue and Twiggs Street in San Diego, and is conveniently located next to the Old Town Transit Center, with Coaster, Trolley, and MTS bus service. Free parking is available at the Caltrans headquarters, just two blocks from the park at 4050 Taylor St.

Best Grocery Store
Trader Joe's
It all started in the ’50s. Would you believe they started out as a small chain of convenience stores? It’s true. Way back in 1958, they were called Pronto Markets. In ’67, the founder, the original Trader Joe, changed the name to Trader Joe’s. They made the stores bigger (if you can imagine), decked the walls with cedar planks and donned the crew in cool Hawaiian shirts. Most importantly, they started putting innovative, hard-to-find, great-tasting foods in the Trader Joe’s name. That cut costs and saved you money. Still does.

Best Pet Resort
Purring Parrot
Owners Maria and Patrick Brinson decided to open up a place for feline and avian companions, because they noticed that the level of service for dogs has grown, while cats and birds have been left behind. It’s for pet owners that may not want a sitter coming into their home or may want their animal companions to have more than one or two short visits a day. They feel they could not only offer more than what is currently available but also raise the level of care for cats and birds when staying away from home.
