Welcome to Pacific Beach — or PB, as the locals call it! PB, along with Mission Beach and Mission Bay has it all: beach, sand, surf and shops, restaurants and bars!

Some 1,400 businesses call the greater PB area home, and with our pedestrian-friendly, easy-going beachside vibe, it’s easy to see why so many visitors love coming here. Looking for a few suggestions for fun things to do during your visit? For starters, take a stroll on the boardwalk along the Pacific Ocean and stop into a local coffeehouse. Or rent a bike at a bike shop and cruise around beautiful Mission Bay.

Afterward, be sure to grab something tasty at any of our hundreds of diverse restaurants. From sandwiches to sushi, seafood to steaks and everything in between, your quest for a great dining experience will be found right here in PB (sunset views included at no additional charge).

Be sure to leave your coat and tie at home, as just about anywhere welcomes “PB casual” attire. Flip flops are the norm around here.

With so many fun shops, you may need to extend your vacation just to take in all of the shopping options. Eclectic boutiques, salons, surf shops and more make shopping here a favorite local sport. Everyone from the serious collector to the novice window shopper will find what they are looking for here in PB.

Be sure to check out www.pacificbeach.org for the Pacific Beach business directory, as well as information on upcoming events and activities.
Welcome to La Jolla

La Jolla, San Diego’s jewel by the sea, is a world-class destination with a wide selection of things to do and see. La Jolla has an appeal that is all its own, a special atmosphere. From the unique architecture to the high-quality boutiques to the sophisticated ambiance, La Jolla is one of a kind. Once you arrive, you’ll know that this is truly a special place to visit.

First of all, the variety of top-notch hotels is amazing, whether it be a seaside inn with an ocean view or a classic setting with elite service. When dining, select from a variety of fine establishments for exquisite cuisine or choose one of the more casual spots for tasty comfort food. You can’t go wrong. And, there’s no limit to who you might run into during your stay. From movie stars to world leaders, and celebrities of all types have been known to frequent La Jolla.

La Jolla is also a shopper’s paradise, so take your time exploring the abundance of boutiques in the Village of La Jolla. View quality art creations at one of La Jolla’s many galleries, or visit the Athenaeum Music and Arts Library. Or, pay a visit to the Museum of Contemporary Art to see some of the progressive artworks on exhibit.

Swim in La Jolla Cove, relax along the beach, tour the Sunny Jim Cave, a natural entryway to the Pacific below.

Just a bit to the north is the La Jolla Shores neighborhood. There, you will find a small village with its own vibe. Fine restaurants, boutiques and hotels are also available in this area, along with a quaint, clean stretch of beach. Looking for a little adventure? Try taking kayak, scuba or surf lessons from one of the many businesses that offer training here.

Further to the north are the Birch Aquarium at Scripps Institution of Oceanography, the Torrey Pines Gliderport and the world-renowned Torrey Pines Golf Course, a city-owned course with a breathtaking ocean view. At the very north is Torrey Pines State Reserve featuring fantastic seaside hiking trails and more spectacular vistas.

La Jolla is home to corporate research and development centers, the University of California, Scripps Institution of Oceanography and several top-ranking hospitals.

La Jolla is truly a global destination worthy of its first-class reputation. It’s a destination not to be missed.

8. Dog Beach — a dog-run area in Ocean Beach where dogs are permitted without a leash at all hours of the day. Dog owners are responsible for control and clean-up of their dogs. Standard dog laws apply on other portions of the beach and are strictly enforced.

9. Ellen Browning Scripps Memorial Pier — one of the world’s biggest research piers, used for boat launching and a variety of experiments. The pier is not open to the public.

10. Fiesta Island — a large area of land centrally located in Mission Bay. There is a 5 mph zone on the east side of the island that is popular for recreational water sports. The Fiesta Island Youth Camp and the Aquatic Center are on the island. There are bonfire rings around the shore of the island and dogs are allowed off leash. Permitted water ski area in Hidden Cove and permits for water skiing are available.

11. Kate Sessions Park — offers grassy areas, ocean view, barbecue pits and play structures. Soledad Road and Lamont Street.

12. Kobey’s Swap Meet — located at 3500 Sports Arena Blvd. Open Fridays through Sundays from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. Admission: $1.00 on Fridays, $2 Saturdays and Sundays. Children 11 and under admitted free. Pets welcome! (619) 226-0650

13. La Jolla Community Center — offers a wide variety of classes, lectures and other activities. 6811 La Jolla Blvd. (858) 459-0831

14. La Jolla Cove — an upscale hamlet of hotels, boutiques and galleries. Part of the San Diego-La Jolla Underwater Park Ecological Reserve, it is sheltered by picturesque cliffs and has some of the clearest water of all San Diego beaches, making it ideal for scuba diving and snorkeling. Just above La Jolla Cove is Scripps Park, a great place for picnicking.
15. La Jolla Cave — a unique cave with a man-made tunnel from the Cave Store, which allows visitors to enter ‘Sunny Jim’ Cave by land. Even though from the sea you can enter any one of the other six ocean-carved caves, this is the only known land access sea cave on the California coastline. Admission price: $4 adults and $3 for 16 years and under.

16. La Jolla Historical Society — located in the historic Wisteria Cottage at 780 Prospect St., the society offers historical exhibits, as well as educational programs like the Historic Walking Tours of La Jolla. (858) 459-5335

17. La Jolla Playhouse — a Tony Award-winning theater that was founded in 1947 by Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and Mel Ferrer, the Playhouse features a rotating variety of not-to-miss shows. 2910 La Jolla Village Drive. (858) 550-1010

18. La Jolla Shores — a sandy beach approximately one mile long, adjacent to a residential area. In summer, waves at this beach are usually the most gentle of all San Diego beaches. Fishing and removal of objects from the area is prohibited, as it lies within the ecological reserve.

19. Liberty Station — located on Rosecrans Street in Point Loma, Liberty Station is the former Naval Training Center, which has been converted into a mixed-use community on a boat channel off San Diego Bay. It consists of retail shops, restaurants, a promenade, golf course and a park. The Naval Training Center site is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

20. Mission Bay Aquatic Park — the West Coast’s largest aquatic park covers more than 4,600 acres and offers a range of recreational activities, along with excellent surf conditions and soft sand. Mission Bay offers boat docks and launches, sailboat and motor rentals, biking and walking paths, basketball courts and playgrounds for children.

22. Mt. Soledad Veterans Memorial — displays a 40-foot cross and offers spectacular 360 degree views of the ocean and San Diego. soledadmemorial.com

23. Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego, La Jolla — features rotating collections of the finest work from contemporary masters, as well as permanent collections and public programs. 700 Prospect St. (858) 454-3541
24. Ocean Beach Municipal Pier — located at the south end of the beach, the pier is available to the public for walking and fishing and features a restaurant and bait shop. Fishing from the pier does not require a license, but catch regulations are enforced.

25. Old Town — explore the many historic sites and shops. Enjoy the richness of history, art and culture that is truly the flavor of Old Town San Diego.

26. Pottery Canyon — an easy hiking area for anyone with small children. Though an old pottery factory was on the site, not much of it remains. Take La Jolla Parkway, make a right turn on Torrey Pines Road. At the first major signal, make a quick and hard right turn on Pottery Canyon Driveway. Drive slowly onto the property. Follow the paved road until you arrive at the small dirt parking area on the left.

27. The Salk Institute — a research facility focused on molecular biology, genetics, the neurosciences and plant biology. Jonas Salk led the development of the first polio vaccine and opened the Salk Institute in 1963. Seminars are offered every Thursday; free guided architectural tours are given Mondays through Fridays at noon. Reservations are required. (858) 453-4100, ext. 1287, 10010 N. Torrey Pines Road.

28. Scripps Park — a grassy playing and picnic field above La Jolla Cove. North end of Coast Boulevard, La Jolla.

North Coast Repertory Theatre, under the artistic leadership of David Ellenstein since 2003, is a professional Equity theatre founded in 1982 by Olive and Tom Blakistone. Currently celebrating its 37th season, NCR has received critical acclaim from media and audiences alike, and has evolved into one of the area’s leading performing arts organizations. NCR prides itself on employing the majority of its actors from Actors’ Equity Association for its high quality, award-winning productions, and staging works by established and emerging playwrights. Throughout its history, NCR has created a platform where artist and audience thrive through the intimacy of live theatre, recognizing the power of theatre to challenge complacency, revitalize the imagination, nurture the unexpected, and embrace the variety and diversity in our lives. This intimate theatre produces World Premieres as well as productions from New York.

Chronic Smoothies Blazin Grill
865 Turquoise St, Pacific Beach · 858-488-2529 theblazingrill.com

Chronic Smoothies started as a small beachside smoothie spot back in 2000 serving up incredible smoothies, acai bowls, and custom sandwiches. We relocated in 2008 just a few doors down and expanded into Chronic Smoothies Blazin Grill, a fun and relaxed friendly hangout for locals and visitors alike. Now, in addition to our original smoothies and sandwiches, we serve breakfast, delicious lunch salads, specialty burgers, pizzas and a savory dinner menu as well. We use organic Acai berries, and only the freshest fruit for our smoothies and each sandwich is made to order using Boar’s Head meats.

Kaiserhof Restaurant

2253 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., Ocean Beach · 619-224-0606
kaiserhofrestaurant.com

Kaiserhof is a great family owned and operated German restaurant and would not be complete without wiener schnitzel or jagerschnitzel. It doesn’t get much better than the wurst platters, including Bratwurst, knackwurst and Bauernwurst with sauerkraut and red potatoes and a good German beer. Other items include beef goulash, beef stroganoff, Bavarian-style sauerbraten and the stuffed rolled beef specialty called rouladen. American-style entrées include broiled lobster tail, grilled halibut steak, poached salmon filet with hollandaise, filet mignon Madagascar with peppercorn brandy sauce, or a New York strip steak. Dine in or enjoy the beer garden, a lovely outdoor heated area where you can sip a German brew and enjoy traditional German and American meals. Full bar.

Roadrunner Ridge Winery
4233 Rosa Rancho Lane, Fallbrook CA 92028 · 760-731-7349
roadrunnerridgewinery.com

Great wine starts in the Vineyard which is why we only make our wines from the grapes we grow on our steep, hillside property. We walk the vineyard almost every day to make sure everything is developing properly to insure the best possible outcome. All of our grapes are hand harvested at optimum ripeness and picked in the cool morning in small lots. Call us today to book your reservation.
