2019 Official La Jolla Christmas Parade Program produced and published by LA JOLLA VILLAGE NEWS
Message from the La Jolla Christmas Parade and Holiday Festival Foundation

Welcome to the 62nd Annual La Jolla Christmas Parade & Holiday Festival ‘Christmas on the Moon’. This year we honor Jack McGrory as Grand Marshal, in recognition of his many contributions to La Jolla, San Diego and the nation. Honorary Parade Marshals are Papa Doug Manchester (Philanthropic), Peter and Peggy Preuss (Civic), Brett Murphy (Sports) and BGen Ryan Heritage, Commanding General MCRD (Military Marshal).

This year our theme reflects the 50th anniversary of the first Moon landing and we are honored to have Astronaut and International Space Station Commander R. Shane Kimbrough riding in the parade as our Space Marshal, courtesy of the NASA Astronaut Appearance Program.

The Parade starts with an amazing Flyover, courtesy of the Antique Aircraft Museum and Bill Allen who created this wonderful tradition 40 years ago. Dozens of floats, bands, marching units, equestrians, vintage vehicles, fire engines, and Beauty Queens will travel the parade route.

Once again, Santa returns courtesy of Sunrise Rotary and Santa’s ‘sleigh’ is the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club Old Black Goose, a 1915 Black Packard Convertible which carries Santa in the Parade. ‘What’s Up in Space’ with Astronaut Kimbrough is a special opportunity to learn about his experiences in space exploration and future plans.

The Parade and Festival are funded by community donations and grants from Foundations, businesses, and residents. The Christmas Parade and Holiday Festival Committee dedicate countless volunteer hours to making each Christmas Parade and Holiday Festival the best ever! We offer special thanks and Mike Cynthia-Adams Carlin (Parade Directors) for their many years of service and expertise that insure a safe and fun event for the whole family and community.

Tribute to Pat Wells

Pat was a quiet presence whose cheerful demeanor, kind words, hard work and skills were responsible in large part for the success of this community event for over a decade.

Pat never sought the spotlight and refused recognition. She can no longer refuse. In her honor, this year, we will have a Tribute to Pat Wells at the Holiday Festival and a special banner for Pat will be carried in the Parade.

La Jolla Christmas Parade and Holiday Festival returns

By Jill Diamond

The annual La Jolla Christmas Parade and Holiday Festival is back in town on Sunday, Dec. 8, with a parade on Girard Avenue at 1:30 p.m. and festival from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the La Jolla Recreation Center at 615 Prospect St.

“This year’s theme is ‘Christmas on the Moon’ that originated with an idea by parade chair, Ann Kerr Forbes, who remembers vividly the landing on July 20, 1969,” said Gail Forbes, assistant of the parade’s marching units.

“Fifty years later we can actually contemplate realistically there may be a celebration on the mooncape. Certainly our global astronauts will be dreaming of a white Christmas on the space station.”

Once again, it’s time to bring your loved ones, friends or anyone else who loves a good parade and wants to enjoy some holiday cheer. See floats, marching bands, community groups, drill teams, vintage vehicles, horses and much more.

“June Barrymore and her gang threw candy out the windows and that started it all around 1947…” Forbes recalled.

“Of course, there is tons of people-pleasing entertainment every year. There are always dogs, lots of dogs, fancy cars, funny floats, equestrians, cowboys and bandits, mariachi drill teams, dancers and Santa,” she said. “Santa rides in the Stanley Steamer automobile belonging to the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club at the very end of the parade. Sometimes, we get the Wells Fargo wagon or the Budweiser Clydesdales but they follow a strict schedule and cannot always participate in La Jolla.”

While the parade comes and goes quickly, it does take a lot of planning and almost immediately after the event the planning starts up again for the next year, Forbes said. “Work starts again as soon as the parade stops. It is a year-long process that increasingly demands additional funding to ensure public safety,” Forbes said. If you plan to go, all the Holiday Festival activities take place on the grounds of the La Jolla Rec Center, where the parade will end at 3 p.m. Forbes notes it an easy walk from the parade’s starting location, which means it could be easier to keep your car parked in one spot for the day.

SeaWorld introduces new Christmas celebration shows

Christmas glides into SeaWorld with an all-new ice skating spectacular featuring skaters from around the country performing Winter Wonderland on ice.

Cirque Christmas, a jaw-dropping performance combining the traditional ballet of “The Nutcracker” with contemporary circus-style entertainment, also debuts this year.

Along with these new and other holiday experiences, the park will be returning many guests’ favorites. From sea lions to Santa Claus, there’s something for everyone with marine park favorites. Taking center stage at the Christmas celebration this year is Winter Wonderland on Ice, an ice skating spectacular featuring 15 of the nation’s top skaters including USA National and International team member, Brandon Mroz. This holiday experience will be performed nightly under the stars at SeaWorld’s outdoor Nautlius Amphitheater, with more than a dozen ice routines skated to classic holiday songs, including a couples’ waltz to “It’s That Time of Year,” and an upbeat toy soldier performance to “Jingle Bells.”

RUDOLPH’S CHRISTMASTOWN
Rudolph’s Christmastown has something for everyone, including photo opportunities with Rudolph and his friends Clarice, Bumble and Yukon Cornelius.

SANTAS COTTAGE
After making a reservation, the entire family can enjoy “Merry Moments” with friendly elves, storytelling with Mrs. Claus, and delectable sweet treats such as kettle corn, hot chocolate, and cinnamon rolls. A special singing service will then alert families when it’s time for their child or children to meet Santa.

Lights, lights and more lights

The holiday shines at SeaWorld like nowhere else in San Diego. More than a million Christmas lights, the iconic 320-foot Skytower Tree of Lights and the park’s 40-foot, animated Happy Christmas Tree, bring the festive holiday spirit to life. As guests stroll around the park, they’ll also spot blue trees dotting the hill behind Dolphin Amphitheater, palm trees lit like candy canes near Sea Lion and Otter Amphitheater, and multi-colored lights that turn the Shark Encounter more merry.

The perfect gift!

Donovan’s promises an unforgettable experience for your family, friends, clients, employees and associates.
